Party Donations

A party donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made to a party. A party donation includes:

- where a party is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value of more than $1,500
- where a party is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $1,500, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is a donation
- when a party sells over-valued goods or services, the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation (for example a fundraising auction or dinner)

- where credit is provided to a party on more favourable terms than those prevailing at the same time for similar credit, the value of the favourable terms is a donation.

The following are not a party donation:

- volunteer labour
- goods or services provided free of charge to a party, or to any person on the party's behalf, that have a reasonable market value of $1,500 or less, or
- a candidate donation that is included in a candidate's return of donations.

PART A: PARTY DONATIONS OF MORE THAN $15,000

Instruction for Part A – Donations over $15,000

Party donations of more than $15,000 (including GST) received during 2018 are required to be declared in Part A, including a series of donations received from the same donor during the year that add up to more than $15,000. Also include those donations exceeding $30,000 received during the year and reported under section 210C.

Do not include in Part A contributions to donations, anonymous or overseas donations, donations protected from disclosure, or donations not exceeding $15,000 (see Parts B, C, D, E, F and G).

You need to record the name and street address of the donor, the date the donation was received and the amount received from the donor. Where you have received a number of donations from the same donor you should include each date on which a donation was received from the donor and the aggregated total from the donor. You also need to confirm whether any person (other than the donor) has contributed more than $15,000 to the donation. Contributions of more than $15,000 must be disclosed in Part B (or Part E for overseas contributors). Contributions of $15,000 or less do not have to be included in the return.

Apart from candidate donations, all donations received throughout the party administration whether at the national or local level (or other subsidiary entities) must be recorded as being received by the party. The only segment of political parties recognised distinctly in electoral law is candidates .

What was the difference between the contract price and the reasonable market value (including GST) of any goods or services provided to the party at a discount?	Where the reasonable market value is more than $1,500, the difference in value (discount) is a donation.
What was the difference between the contract price and the reasonable market value (including GST) of any goods or services provided by the party at a premium?	The difference in value (premium) is a donation.
What was the value to the party of the terms and conditions of any credit provided to the party on more favourable terms and conditions than prevailed at the time?	The value to the party of the more favourable terms and conditions is a donation.
Do any of the donations identified above, or components of those donations, fall within the party donation exclusions?	A party donation does not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the labour of any person provided free of charge by that person</li> <li>• goods or services provided free of charge, or which have a reasonable market value of $1,500 or less</li> <li>• any candidate donation that is included in a candidate donation return filed under section 209</li> </ul> Do not include these items in the calculation of party donations. [section 207 definition of party donation at paragraph (b)]

Apart from donations protected from disclosure, which persons made donations to the party and which persons made contributions to a donation? [section 210(1)] NOTE: whether an intermediary is a transmitter of a donation on behalf of a donor, or is a donor making a donation funded from contributions, will be a question of fact taking into account all of the provisions pertaining to transmitters and contributions.
Did person A make the donation directly to the party (or any person or organisation involved in the administration of the affairs of the party)?	If yes:            Person A is a "donor" and made a "donation". If no:  Did person A give their donation to another person or organisation (person B) to forward on (transmit) to the party?	If yes:            Person A is a "donor" and made a "donation". Include this donation in the calculation of donations from person A.            Person B is a "transmitter" and is not a donor. Do not include this transmission in the calculation of donations or contributions from person B.            [section 207 definition of donor and definition of transmitter, and section 207B]
If no:  Did person A give their donation to another person or organisation (person C) with the knowledge or expectation that it would be wholly or partly applied to funding a donation to the party?	If yes:            Person A is a "contributor" and made a "contribution to a donation". Include this contribution in the calculation of contributions to donations from person A.            Person C is a "donor" and made a "donation".
