DONATIONS Complete Parts A to G

Party Donations

A party donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made to a party.
A party donation includes:

- where a party is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value of more than $1,500
- where a party is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $1,500, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is a donation
- when a party sells over-valued goods or services, the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation (for example a fundraising auction or dinner)

- where credit is provided to a party on more favourable terms than those prevailing at the same time for similar credit, the value of the favourable terms is a donation.

The following are not a party donation:

- volunteer labour
- goods or services provided free of charge to a party, or to any person on the party's behalf, that have a reasonable market value of $1,500 or less, or
- a candidate donation that is included in a candidate's return of donations.

PART A: PARTY DONATIONS OF MORE THAN $15,000

Instruction for Part A – Donations over $15,000

Party donations of more than $15,000 (including GST) received during 2018 are required to be declared in Part A, including a series of donations received from the same donor during the year that add up to more than $15,000. Also include those donations exceeding $30,000 received during the year and reported under section 210C.

Do not include in Part A contributions to donations, anonymous or overseas donations, donations protected from disclosure, or donations not exceeding $15,000 (see Parts B, C, D, E, F and G).

You need to record the name and street address of the donor, the date the donation was received and the amount received from the donor. Where you have received a number of donations from the same donor you should include each date on which a donation was received from the donor and the aggregated total from the donor. You also need to confirm whether any person (other than the donor) has contributed more than $15,000 to the donation. Contributions of more than $15,000 must be disclosed in Part B (or Part E for overseas contributors). Contributions of $15,000 or less do not have to be included in the return.

In Part C you must declare:

- an unincorporated body that has its head office or principal place of business outside New Zealand.

If a donation from an overseas person is over $1,500 (either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same overseas person during the year) the party is entitled to keep $1,500 and within 20 working days must either return the excess to the donor or pay the excess to the Electoral Commission.

In Part D you must declare:

PART F: DONATIONS PROTECTED FROM DISCLOSURE

A donation protected from disclosure enables a person to make an anonymous donation of more than $1,500 to a registered party without their identity being disclosed to either the public or the party receiving the donation.

The current maximum amount that an individual or body can donate to any one party through this process is $46,141.50 between two successive elections. No party may currently receive more than $307,610 from donations protected from disclosure between two successive elections.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Party Secretary of New Zealand First Incorporated

Report on the 2018 Party Donations and Loans Return

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the attached Party Donations and Loans Return for the year ended 31 December 2018 ('Return') of New Zealand First Incorporated ('NZ First') on pages 1 to 12, which comprises Part A (Party donations of more than $15,000), Part B (Contributions of more than $15,000), Part C (Anonymous party donations of more than $1,500), Part D (Overseas party donations of more than $1,500), Part E (Contributions from overseas person of more than $1,500), Part F (Donations protected from disclosure), Part G (Other party donations up to $15,000), Part H (Party loans exceeding $15,000) and Part I (Party loans between $1,500 - $15,000).

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the accompanying Return, in all material respects, is in accordance with the requirements of sections 210 (which relates to the annual return of party donations) and 214C (which relates to the annual return of loans) of the Electoral Act 1993 for the year ended 31 December 2018.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Our opinion is qualified on the following basis:

- whilst we were granted access to all of the Party's electorates' bank accounts, we are not the auditor of the electorates, and accordingly were unable to assess the completeness of donations and loans which may have been received at electorate level
- donations may have been received in kind by way of goods and services that have a reasonable market value of greater than $1,500 (other than volunteer labour) including the value of GST, and there are no practical audit procedures to determine whether they have been comprehensively recorded
- the correct accounting for donations and loans between candidates and the Party may be incomplete, and
- controls over determining the residency status of donors is limited, and there are no practical audit procedures to determine the effect of this limited control.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Independence

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standard on Assurance Engagements (SAE) 3100 (Revised). We are independent of NZ First in accordance with Professional and Ethical Standard 1 (Revised) Code of Ethics for Assurance Practitioners issued by the New Zealand Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

Other than in our capacity as auditor we have no relationship with, or interests in, NZ First.

The Party Secretary's Responsibility for the Return

The Party Secretary is responsible on behalf of the entity for the preparation of a Return which correctly presents the Party's donations and loans received during the year ended 31 December 2018 in accordance with sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Return

Our responsibilities are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Return as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (NZ) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (NZ), we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit.

Inherent Limitations

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit engagement, it is possible that fraud, error or non-compliance may occur and not be detected. Furthermore, because the procedures performed for this engagement are not performed continuously throughout the year and the procedures performed are undertaken on a test basis, our assurance engagement cannot be relied on to detect all instances where the Party may not have complied with sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993. The opinion expressed in this report has been formed on the above basis.

APPENDIX to Letter of Representation

The return's contents have been determined by considering, in the following sequence, these questions and the relevant provisions of the Act:

What benefits to the party were donations? [sections 3, 207 and 207A]
Was the donation made to the party or to any person or organisation on behalf of the party?	The party is the registered political party. Apart from candidate donations, all donations received throughout the party administration whether at the national or local level (or other subsidiary entities) must be recorded as being received by the party. The only segment of political parties recognised distinctly in electoral law is candidates .
What gifts of money did the party receive?	Donations include any money donated to the party, regardless of method of payment. This includes donations protected from disclosure .
What gifts of goods or services did the party receive?	Any goods or services donated to the party that have a reasonable market value of greater than $1,500 (other than volunteer labour) are donations, including the value of GST.
What was the difference between the contract price and the reasonable market value (including GST) of any goods or services provided to the party at a discount?	Where the reasonable market value is more than $1,500, the difference in value (discount) is a donation.
What was the difference between the contract price and the reasonable market value (including GST) of any goods or services provided by the party at a premium?	The difference in value (premium) is a donation.
What was the value to the party of the terms and conditions of any credit provided to the party on more favourable terms and conditions than prevailed at the time?	The value to the party of the more favourable terms and conditions is a donation.
Do any of the donations identified above, or components of those donations, fall within the party donation exclusions?	A party donation does not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the labour of any person provided free of charge by that person • goods or services provided free of charge, or which have a reasonable market value of $1,500 or less • any candidate donation that is included in a candidate donation return filed under section 209 Do not include these items in the calculation of party donations. [section 207 definition of party donation at paragraph (b)]

Apart from donations protected from disclosure, which persons made donations to the party and which persons made contributions to a donation? [section 210(1)]

NOTE: whether an intermediary is a transmitter of a donation on behalf of a donor, or is a donor making a donation funded from contributions, will be a question of fact taking into account all of the provisions pertaining to transmitters and contributions.

Did person A make the donation directly to the party (or any person or organisation involved in the administration of the affairs of the party)?	If yes: Person A is a “donor” and made a “donation”. Include this donation in the calculation of donations from person A. [section 207 definition of donor and definition of party donation]
If no: Did person A give their donation to another person or organisation (person B) to forward on (transmit) to the party?	If yes: Person A is a “donor” and made a “donation”.
